

Full membership - organizations

Full membership in the International Blackcurrant Association entitles you and all the employees of your company/organization to:

- access all parts of the IBA website upon simple registration
- benefit from reduced conference fees during the IBA bi-annual conferences
- take part in IBA Annual General Meetings, elect the representatives of the IBA Board, Vice-presidents and President and stand for a position on the Board

The membership is valid for the current financial year (1st April - 31st March) and can be renewed every year from 1st April onwards. The website user account(s) related to your organization will be automatically closed after 30th April if no new membership has been purchased.

Simple membership - organizations

Simple membership in the International Blackcurrant Association entitles you and all the employees of your company / organization to:

- access all parts of the IBA website upon simple registration
- benefit from reduced conference fees during the IBA bi-annual conferences

The membership is valid for the current financial year (1st April - 31st March) and can be renewed every year from 1st April onwards. The website user account(s) related to your organization will be automatically closed after 30th April if no new membership has been purchased.

Full membership - individuals

Full membership in the International Blackcurrant Association entitles you to:

- access all parts of the IBA website upon simple registration
- benefit from reduced conference fees during the IBA bi-annual conferences
- take part in IBA Annual General Meetings, elect the representatives of the IBA Board, Vice-presidents and President and stand for a position on the Board

The membership is valid for the current financial year (1st April - 31st March) and can be renewed every year from 1st April onwards. The website user account will be automatically closed after 30th April if no new membership has been purchased.

Simple Membership - Individuals

Simple membership in the International Blackcurrant Association entitles you to:

- access all parts of the IBA website upon simple registration
- benefit from reduced conference fees during the IBA bi-annual conferences

The membership is valid for the current financial year (1st April - 31st March) and can be renewed every year from 1st April onwards. The website user account will be automatically closed after 30th April if no new membership has been purchased.